

Dr. Fábio Ferri de Barros

Current Practice/Center/Institution:

Alberta Children's Hospital - University of Calgary

Medical School & Graduation Year:

Faculdade de Ciências Médicas da Santa Casa de São Paulo 1995

Place of Orthopaedic Residency and Fellowship Training:

Residency:

Santa Casa de São Paulo, Pavilhão Fernandinho Simonsen-São Paulo, Brasil -1996-1997 (PGY 1-2)

Instituto de Fraturas Ortopedia e Reabilitação SBC (IFOR)-São Paulo-Brasil - 1998 (PGY 3)

Fellowships: University of São Paulo – 2003

A.I.duPont Hospital for Children – 2004

Westmead Children's Hospital –Sydney, Australia 2005

AO Pediatric Fellow-INSESPITAL – Berne, Switzerland 2006

The Hospital for Sick Children – Toronto, Canada 2006-2009

Master of Sciences HPME/IMS – University of Toronto 2007-2013

What attracted your interest to IPSG?

The possibility to contribute to advancing knowledge about this challenging disease

What would you say is the most challenging part of treating Perthes Disease?

Predicting which patients will benefit from an intervention and which patients may be better served with no intervention.

What would you like to see accomplished through annual IPSG meetings?

The development of an evidence based approach to managing Perthes Disease

